

Commonwealth Innovations

Call for Articles - 2010

We would like to extend an invitation to all members and interested professionals to contribute articles, research and new innovative approaches to Commonwealth Innovations, CAPAM's member publication. As an organisation that takes pride in the strength, diversity and professional representation of our membership and network contacts, CAPAM would like to continue providing opportunities to share knowledge, interests and best practices for public service professionals across the Commonwealth.

Commonwealth Innovations will accept contributions in the following forms:

- articles that highlight new innovative approaches to policy, service delivery, and leadership
- research and academic articles on leadership, service delivery, human resources, management, innovation in policy and practice, public service reform and other topics in the field of public administration
- country, regional or international case studies
- conference papers and reports
- other recently published articles or reports

Commonwealth Innovations is distributed by post to over 1100 international members, and is electronically distributed to a wider network of CAPAM affiliate organisations and interested professionals.

Articles of various lengths will be accepted for publication. For more information, or to submit an article, please contact Ada Wong, Manager, Membership & Communications at awong@capam.org or 1-905-258-0727.
